

WHITE WINE, BOXED

Value: $45 Minimum Bid: $25

Winemaker, Bob Mirabito, presents to you his MUSCATO wine, which is a sort of sweet wine, preferred after dinner; and truly delightful when chilled and allowed to breath for a minute after pouring.

One of Bob's inherent interests is making fine wine the old fashioned way. He particularly enjoys the "festivities of the crush".

His wine will never be found in a wine store as it is very personal and very much appreciated.

Bob makes his wine at the Boston Winery in Boston, Massachusetts; where on any given day, they are either making wine or drinking it. It's an old Italian custom that is shared with other wine makers at the winery.

These wines are personally made by Bob, at the Boston Winery and presented in it's own mahogany wine box, for your pleasure.
