4. ANY OTHER INTERESTS

I am interested in International Relations, International Business, and in learning to fluently speak German, Hungarian, and French by the time I am thirty. I am also deeply interested in hiking, backpacking, rock-climbing, canoeing, camping, community service, and traveling the world.

5. WHAT ARE YOU INTERESTED IN STUDYING IN COLLEGE? HAVE YOU CONSIDERED ANY SPECIFIC CAREER GOALS YET?

I am interested in studying international relations, international business, and ethnic studies in college. For my career, I hope to one day become a university professor, write a novel, and serve as some form of a political consultant. In general, my goal is to work on the global stage and more specifically in the realm of international diplomacy.

6. LIST THE COLLEGES YOU HAVE APPLIED TO AND THE STATUS OF YOUR APPLICATIONS.

I have been waitlisted at Tufts University.
I have been accepted to Williams College.
I have been accepted to Brown University.
I have been accepted to Yale University.

7. WHICH COLLEGE IS YOUR FIRST CHOICE? WHY?

Yale University is my first choice because the university offers a liberal arts education which affords me the flexibility to focus on international relations while supplementing my studies with humanities-based courses. Furthermore, I chose Yale because it offers many programs through which I can diversify my range of activities and come into contact with people I normally wouldn't.

8. REQUIRED ESSAY (approximately 250 words):

Describe your personal goals, challenges or commitments and how you will draw on what you've learned about Michael Rothberg's legacy to inspire your own.

Please submit your essay with your name clearly marked as a separate file attached to your completed application form.
